"The question of preparing for the defence of the antion is not a party one and the Republicans are resaly to meet the Democrats half way if the majority marty is really willing to discuss this question on a non-partisan basis."

Disagrees on Merchant Marine.

Senator Gallinger disagreed with the president on his plan for a merchant marine and for raising the inobay necessary for preparedness. When the administration snipping bill is introduced, menator Gallinger said, he will offer a substitute. The Republicans, however, he added, favored using the merchant inarine as naval auxilibries.

Senator Gallinger advocated a bond issue and opposed president Wilson's program of internal taxation. He particularly objected to a tax on automobiles and gasoline. He said, bowever, that he favored lowering the income tax minimum and he believed a tax on bank checks would do no harm. He opposed a tax on iron and steel.

Political leaders in Washington tonight regarded it as practically certain that Chicago will be selected for the Republican convention when the national committee of that party meets next Tuesday. The date for this convention probably will be late in June.
Each of the three cities contesting for the Democratic convention put in a bid of $100,000. St. Louis placed in the hands of the chairman. New York drafts
